FOREWORD

The purpose of the annual is to give its readers an insite into the life of our school. The annual recalls in pictures and in story the activities of the student body during the school year.

We have attempted to picture this with originality, informality, and beauty. We have done this by planning the theme of our division pages around our school activities. If our annual affords our readers enjoyment, we shall be amply rewarded for our pains.

And if in years to come, some of you will find in this record passages that are productive of the pleasure of reminiscence, the savor of old friendships, the editors will consider their ambitions completely realized.

SCHOOL LIFE

"Ay, note that Potter's wheel,
"That metaphor! and feel
"Why time spins fast, why passive lies our clay,—"

BROWNING

The potter's wheel is that wheel upon which is placed the clay used to form a beautiful vase which is molded and shaped to suit the taste of the potter. Browning uses this figure of the potter's wheel to apply to the circumstances and environment which the great Potter uses to mold us, the clay, so that our lives may be used to the end of all things—the glory of God.

Most of us who are about to graduate have spent the four years of our high school career in this the Chicago Christian High School. Our stay here was a part of the great wheel which God was using to mold us.

Our high school years are during the most impressionate part of our life. Perhaps one may say that what happens in this period has more effect on one's later life than the circumstances of any other age. This age may well be called the "strain and stress" period. Therefore it is especially important that in the high school age, one be surrounded by the right kind of influences.

We have spent four years in the Chicago Christian High School. During this time our minds were being developed so that we might have knowledge which might be useful throughout our lives. Perhaps even more important than the acquisition of knowledge is the learning of methods of work. We were taught to use good judgment and clear thinking. How should we cope with life's problems without such equipment?

Our lives were greatly influenced by our Christian teachers. They did much more than to instruct us in the knowledge of the subjects they taught. They applied the lessons to practical life so that they began to live before us, and especially we were made to see things from the point of view of a Christian. In history we were made to see the providence of God through which he directs the affairs of the nations to their ultimate end. In science we marveled at the wonders of God's hands and the beautiful order existing in every part of nature. In the study of literature we see something of the greatness of Man's mind. We learned what philosophies of life great men of this world have had, and the Christian philosophy of life was compared to it. All this and much more besides the regular Bible study was a part of that Christian education which was molding our lives.

Our Christian teachers were interested in teaching their subjects well, but they were especially interested in each of us as individuals shaped with an immortal soul.

Thus we see that our school life is one part of the wheel which the great Potter uses to mold us so that our lives may be of use to him. In this we as the clay are passive. Yet "since life fleets, all is change; the Past gone, seize today!" We must also be active to appropriate unto ourselves the good that we learn from the lessons of the present. We must be active to form philosophies for our individual lives which are in harmony with the teaching of God's word.

We are thankful to God for the opportunities and privileges he gives us, and our prayer is that we may be used by the great Potter as vessels to his honor.

DEDICATION

OSCAR HOFSTRA

To Oscar Hofstra with profound appreciation for his whole-hearted interest toward The Chicago Christian High School in general, and with sincerest gratitude for his services to the senior class in particular, we, the graduates of nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, with utmost respect dedicate this volume of the Violet and Maize.

For he has been more than a teacher. With unending kindness and untiring energy he has assisted, counselled, and admonished, we seniors through four years of happy school life.

For the joys we have experienced, for the obstacles encountered and overcome, and for the ample education received, we seniors give all recognition and appreciation to Oscar Hofstra, and sincerely hope that this book will partly compensate him for his untiring efforts in our behalf.

APPRECIATION

MISS A. COOPER

In September, 1933, a class of seventy-five freshmen began their high school career at the Chicago Christian High School. At this same time Miss Cooper came to Chicago and began her four years of teaching in our school. Now these freshmen have completed their high school course and are about to leave. In this leaving Miss Cooper has preceded them by a few months. But the wholesome influence of her life has left its mark upon them.

During her stay Miss Cooper was a most excellent teacher. She spent many hours every day in helping to organize new clubs and giving helpful suggestions to those already in existence. The success of the Euphemia and Sorores are due to her guiding hand.

Always a close friend of the girls Miss Cooper holds a warm place in their hearts. She is gone but is not forgotten. To her we owe much of the happiness of our four years at Chicago Christian High School, and therefore we the senior class wish to take this opportunity to show a little of our appreciation to Miss Cooper for the fine work she has done.

ELEANOR REINDERS

SEPT. 29, 1922-JAN. 7, 1937

On Thursday, January 7, 1937, it pleased the Almighty God in his inscrutable wisdom to take unto Himself Eleanor Dorothy Reinders, one of the students of our school.

Eleanor was a little over 14 years old having been born September 29, 1922. She was in her first year of high school. Little did we think that one so young would be taken away.

We had hoped and prayed that her life might be spared, but after only a few days of illness the grim reaper of death cut off her life. Our hearts were saddened by her demise, but it is the hope of life eternal that assuages our grief. According to her own confession she was not afraid to die. How blessed it is when death is a falling asleep in Jesus.

As a student body and faculty we were again reminded of the brevity and uncertainty of life, and we were reminded that we must work while it is yet day for the night is coming in which no man can work.

May the memory of her death spur us on to greater usefulness in the Kingdom of God.

ADMINISTRATION

Congratulations to our graduates of 1937! Parents, Board members, teachers, and friends rise to give honor where honor is due. The diploma you receive as graduates is a reward of victory. It crowns your faithful and successful effort. That diploma symbolizes an imperishable investment in your lives, of principles, character, reverence for God and His will, deep regard for the best interests of your fellow-men. May you never squander or impair that investment. We would have you cherish it and put it to noble use. You have received much and therefore your responsibility is great. May you always worthily represent your Lord, and the school founded upon His truth. Hold fast that which you have, that no man take your crown of faith, of duty, of character.

“Fight the good fight with all thy might,
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right.”

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS

We, the graduating class of the Chicago Christian High School, of the City of Chicago, County of Cook, State of Illinois, United States of American World, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty seven, practically in a state of collapse due to our graduation activities, but being (we hope) of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, ordain, and publish this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking all other will and testaments to be made by us hereafter.

ARTICLE I

We, the class, hereby give, devise, and bequeath unto the class of 1938, otherwise referred to as juniors, all our second best excuses for tardiness, absences, and other forms of irregularities (the best we retain, hoping that we may use them in that higher existence to which we are so soon to be called) held by us as seniors, no matter in what condition and leave to them the task of attempting, however feebly, to be as outstanding a class as we were.

We, the class, hereby give, devise, and bequeath unto the class of 1939, commonly addressed as sophomores, the hope that they shall be as little quiet mice in their schoolrooms always and never bring a blush of shame to C. C. H. S.

We, the class, hereby give, devise, and bequeath unto the class of 1940, those modest little inconspicuous bits of life, alias our own freshman class, a private collection of the many tears we have shed over their childish antics.

ARTICLE II

To Dr. Wezeman: We leave the right to heave one big sigh of relief when we leave these portals for the last time.

To Mr. Van Beek: We, with this act, leave you a big red polka dot bandana with which to dry your tears of sorrow at our departure.

To Mr. Mouw: We give you the complete copyright rights to your super efficient machine soon to be invented.

To Mr. Swets: We devise for you a brand new mustache composed of exclusively seventeen outgrowths.

To Mr. Lanning: We bequeath unto you a special attention attracting device with which you can attract the attention of your typing classes when you wish silence.

To Mr. Baar: We give you a choir of little angels with which you may soar on wings of song.

To Mr. Hofstra: We leave you all the joys of papahood.

To Mr. Vander Velde: We bequeath unto you a robot to perform all your numerous errands for you.

To Mr. Wezeman: We devise for you a perfect and noiseless silencer to use on your future rebellious students.

To Mr. De Vries: We leave you all our rulers and compasses, but carry with us our plane but solid thoughts of you.

THE VIOLET AND MAIZE STAFF

THE VIOLET AND MAIZE staff has been very busy this year and has worked hard to put out an interesting and inexpensive annual. The annual campaign was successful, and the number of annuals sold during this campaign amounted to 650 annuals.

THE VIOLET AND MAIZE staff wishes to take this opportunity to thank the student body for their whole-hearted and loyal support in the campaign. They hope you will enjoy reading the annual as much as they have enjoyed editing it.

This year's MIRROR, which was published bimonthly, was one of the most successful in the school's history. By mimeographing, the papers themselves, the staff could print the very latest news.

The paper consisted of ten pages except on special occasions. When the MIRROR was turned over to the Junior Class in February, there was a net profit of $40.00.

This distinguished board has been very busy this year. They have sponsored the entering of the basketball teams into the Chicago Private School League. Having found the plan of having an Intra-Mural Sports program successful, they have carried it out in full this year. At least once a week we've had games between the different classes and the faculty. These include volleyball and ping-pong.

The A. A. sponsored a magazine subscription contest of the Curtis Publishing Company. The result of a one week contest was $90 which was divided between the Athletic Association, Music department and library.

The A. A. was able to purchase suits for the heavy-weight team this year from its profits in gate receipts. The Homecoming Alumni games were important factors in this.

At the end of the season letters were awarded to the outstanding members of the Heavyweight and Girls' teams in an appropriate assembly exercise.

At the beginning of the basketball season most of us were rather skeptical as to the number of games we would win. Only two lettermen returned from the previous season but when the records of the games won and lost were compiled C. C. H. S. Heavies found themselves in third place in the Private School League. But we do not measure their success only in the number of games won or lost, but above all in their cooperative spirit, sportmanship on the basketball floor, and fighting spirit in the games.

LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL TEAM

The schedule of games for the lights did not include very many games, however, these boys furnished some keen competition for the heavies. Considering this factor many of our lights will fill in the positions on the first team next year.

CHEERLEADERS

What would we have done without our peppy and energetic cheerleaders!! They have spurred our boys on to higher and nobler victories. Besides this, they have popped up the entire school in more than one assembly meeting.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

There they come in their white suits, all ready for another good, hard game.

"Ready, set, go! Guard her girls! Throw the ball to the other end of the floor. An excellent pass!"

There! the whistle blows and one of our forwards has made a basket amid the cheers of the onlookers. This is but a glimpse into the excitement which has been present in their many games. If you haven't seen the girls play you've missed the thrill of a lifetime.

The team has done good work this year. They have lost some games but no one can say they didn't put up a good fight.

We owe our thanks to Miss Ramsey for the success of the team.

Our school is trying to instill in its students an appreciation for good music as well as to teach them the fundamentals of learning.

Mr. Baar has really done a marvelous piece of work in the choir this year as he has done in previous years. Anyone who has tuned in on station A. U. D. the first period in the morning has heard beautiful and melodious strains which have been abundant proof of Mr. Baar's success.

The choir has given concerts in South Holland, Roseland, and Cicero. They have also rendered a few numbers before the distinguished Kiwanis Club. A concert which will never be forgotten, was given April 21 in the Peace Church. The proceeds of this concert helped to finance the tour the choir took, spring vacation. They gave concerts in Grand Rapids, Holland, and Kalamazoo.

The choir has many excellent numbers which they have mastered. Besides some beautiful, sacred numbers, they have two snappy Negro Spirituals.

I'm sure that anyone who has heard our A' Cappella Choir sing will agree that we have reason to be proud of them and their director, Mr. Baar.

MUSIC

C.C.H.S. ORCHESTRA AND BAND

MR. JAMES BAAR—Director

Nothing is quite as effective in arousing a person to his senses as the strains and rythm of a lively march played by a peppy band. Our band has not made any public appearances as yet, but it has worked diligently and has mastered a few good marches. They have played for us in chapel and the students received their efforts with great appreciation. Our hopes are that in the future our band will come to have the prominence that our choir now has.

Those strange sounds that can be heard coming from the auditorium just before dinner are from the orchestra, which is practising at this hour. The orchestra has been reorganized again this year and has shown surprising progress and success. It appeared publicly at the play which was presented by the choir this past winter. Under Mr. Baar's supervision the orchestra and band can not help but forge ahead to better and greater success.

Hot dogs and coffee were just part of the good time that the students enjoyed on Field Day. The students spent the whole afternoon at Ogden Park. Many games were played; and contests in jumping, running, etc., were held. The group that made this afternoon possible for us was the Student Council.

Around this Council the Student Government League is formed. This League consists of practically all of the students in our school.

Two persons are elected from each class every ten weeks. One student is also chosen to represent the student body at large. These students and the faculty advisor, Mr. Mouw, make up the Student Council. Those eligible to vote or hold office in our miniature congress are only the members of the S. G. L.

Outside of sponsoring activities such as Field Day and Courtesy Week, the duties of the Council are to present the views of the students on any problems that may arise among the students and teachers and to promote a better understanding between them.

Messages of sympathy and condolence were sent, to those of our number who lost dear ones, through the Student Council. The marriages of some of our teachers were also remembered by tokens of our love through this Council.

Yes, friends, this is just another phase of our school life.

Best wishes

lots of luck

CHAPEL COMMITTEE

Special numbers have added inspiration to our chapel services. Different people who are interested in our school have given speeches, and student talent has also contributed to the interest of our services. These splendid programs were arranged for by the chapel committee which has done its part in making the services better and more interesting.

HALL GUARDS

Our hall guard system has been very effective in preserving quickness and order in our corridors by enforcing the rule that any student in the halls during class sessions must have a "hall permit."

The hall guards also welcome and guide visitors to our school.

Herbert: Where is my father's portrait,
Elizabeth?

Elizabeth: What do you mean, Herbert?

Herbert: You know what I mean, And where—where is my brass cuspidor?
These are the quotations from one of the crucial parts of the play.

Here are some quotations from a more humorous part of the play.

Andrew: Mrs. Kalness—You're laughing at us. I don't blame you. I—you see—I'm all up in the air. I never did this very often.

Alice: Why Andy!

The audience was held spell-bound throughout the performance with the humor and excitement of it. You've certainly missed something if you haven't seen it. With the help of the production staff the play was successfully given twice in Peace Church. Sponsored by the Music department of C. C. H. S. and directed by Mrs. Lightenberg, the play was one of the best exhibitions of dramatic

"Did I think this would happen? Would a mother do anything to harm her own child?"

“A laugh a minute” is an expression that could be applied to the senior play of '37. These few quotations can only give you a small clue as to what it was all about. If you didn't get to see it you missed something worth while. No one left after the presentation of the play without feeling well satisfied. It was a tremendous success and it displayed the best of the dramatic ability of the senior class. Mrs. Lightenburg did a fine job of coaching the play, and much of the credit goes to her and the production staff.

To Mr. Evenhouse: We bequeath unto you a deluxe pulpit, fully equipped with blackboards, chalk, popguns, and erasers to use on your Bible classes.

To Mr. Koster: We leave you the assistant coachship of the team so your athletic efforts will not have been in vain.

To Mrs. Hoeksema (Miss Cooper to you): We grant you the right to count all the waves in the Pacific out there in California.

To Mrs. Lightenberg: We leave you the right to coach all the school plays to be made henceforth.

To Miss Tenninga: We grant you the right to exercise your incontrovertibility so far as marks are concerned.

To Miss Ramsey: We bequeath you absolute privileges to invent new and harder exercises for your gym classes.

To Miss Schuringa: We devise for you a perfect plus detector with which you can find all the ditching pupils without having to go about the school to do it.

To Mrs. Laesseman: We grant you the privilege of publishing your cook book which is an invaluable aid to all cooking teachers.

From the North Pole of the Junior-Senior Banquet to the sunny south of the Alumnae Banquet. And who says Euphemia isn't versatile! The aim of this club which is to promote good fellowship and social relations among the students has been fully carried out.

In spite of the atmosphere of friendship and good fellowship at the Junior-Senior Banquet, the next morning more than one person said "Br-r-r, it almost made me shiver to look at those decorations." And as to the program, one look at Miss Cooper as Little Orphan Annie and Mr. Van Beek as Silas Marner would have sent you into gales of laughter.

Every alumnae member of Euphemia eagerly looks forward each year to the annual Alumnae Banquet. They always enjoy meeting old school-day friends again.

Something new has been sponsored by Euphemia this year: a good old-fashioned box social. James Baar and William Bieze enlivened things greatly by their auctioneering.

"Buy a bow! Everyone wearing a bow?" Of course no one can resist such a fad as this, and the girls were overwhelmed with requests for bows. Everyone wore them. Even the fellows found some place to put them, and one could hardly see the girls' hair for all the bows they wore. The freshmen wore green, the sophomores yellow, the juniors pink, and the seniors red.

Last year, the fathers of the Sorores members had to stay home, cook the meals, and get the "kiddies" to bed while the mothers were enjoying themselves at the Sorores Mother and Daughter Banquet. This year the girls decided to give the fathers a banquet. It is believed the fathers were even allowed to smoke corn-cob pipes.

The Sorores started the school year off most successfully by giving a roller skating party for the student body.

One bright day in April the air was filled with the fragrance of roses. The stand on the first floor was surrounded with students who wished to purchase flowers.

"Isn't swimming fun?" The Sorores girls certainly think so. They had a Splash party at the Y. W. C. A. for their Alumnae.

You have probably noticed Sorores is always "up and doing." Thanks to these lively sisters and their able sponsor, Miss DeMooy.

This club of junior and senior girls started the year by appearing to the sweet-tooth of the entire school. They know how to reach the hearts of the students. One noon hour we saw the girls standing in the halls with their trays full of delicious candy. Um! Um! we all fall for that.

Acacia showed her courage this year, too. They gave a leap year party to which each member invited a boy from school. If that doesn't take courage we'd like to know what does. The skating parties which they sponsored were huge successes.

Early in February these girls had a Progressive Party. You know what fun that is. It was held in Cicero. There were five hostesses and a separate course was served at each home. Beside eating they played games and stayed in Cicero, for the night.

Oh, yes, Acacia has been doing things this year. And they have lived up to their aim which is to promote social activities in the school. Thank you, Miss Ramsey for your help.

"It has quit snowing already!" We heard many such expressions of disappointment this past winter. Do you wonder why? The reason is that this lively group of boys composing the Juvenes Club have long had plans for a tobogganing party. Toward the end of the season they finally did get enough snow for their excursion. And what a success it was! The girls who accompanied them talked of nothing else for the next week.

Now don't think that this is all that this group of boys has been doing. Its main aim is the preservation and betterment of the school property. This club was organized a year ago. It consists of a group of peppy and energetic junior boys. They have Mr. Swets for their sponsor. Many ideas for the improvement of our school property are being developed by these boys.

In whatever they decide to undertake to this end they can depend on the student body to back them up, for we all have the interest of our school at heart.

Juvenes has decided to provide the school with a trophy case which they themselves will make.

To end the school year with a bang they are planning a boat excursion in which the whole school may participate. Go ahead boys we are waiting for it.

This group is rapidly coming to the foreground as one of the most important clubs of our school. This organization is doing all in its power to stimulate Christian activity and to apply Christian principles to school life.

This club has been engaged in visiting the various missions of our city such as the Helping Hand Mission, Nathaniel Institute, Roseland Community Mission, and West Side Community Mission. The club in most cases has had complete charge of the meetings for which they were scheduled. Each member contributes his part to the service by singing, speaking, or playing instrumental numbers; and in this way he is witnessing for his Saviour.

This organization has become well established among the activities of the school. It is under the able sponsorship of Mr. DeVries and Mr. Evenhouse.

The purpose of the Girl Reserves is "to face life squarely and to find and give the best."

The Girl Reserves code is a beautiful expression of the ideals toward which the girls strive to grow.

G racious in manner
I mpartial in judgment
R eady for service
L oyal to friends.

R eaching toward the best
E arnest in purpose
S eeing the beautiful
E ager for knowledge
V ictorious over self
E ver dependable
S incere at all times

The symbol of the Girl Reserves is a triangle within a circle. The triangle represents the individual club members; the circle represents the world in which they live.

The programs at the meetings of the club include talks and discussions on topics the girls choose; such as, jobs and careers, personality, charm, clothes, etiquette, travel, etc. Our club is but one link of the chain of Girl Reserve clubs of the city.

DRAMATICS

Realizing that the way one speaks in public determines to a great extent the opinions people form of one, this group of students has organized a club for the special purpose of learning how to use one's voice in a most effective manner. In their meetings Mrs. Lightenberg, their sponsor, teaches them such things as how to present a pantomime, how to use the voice in different ways, and what their posture should be while speaking. They are newly organized but it is hoped that they keep up their work.

FORENSIC

Whether or not the Supreme Court proposal is constitutional is one of the problems which this club has been discussing. This club is organized to promote more interest in dramatics, oratory, and debating. They aim to do this by promoting better knowledge of some of the current topics. The membership consists mostly of junior and senior boys under the sponsorship of Mr. Van Beek. On to better speech and more knowledge of current events!

J. U. G.

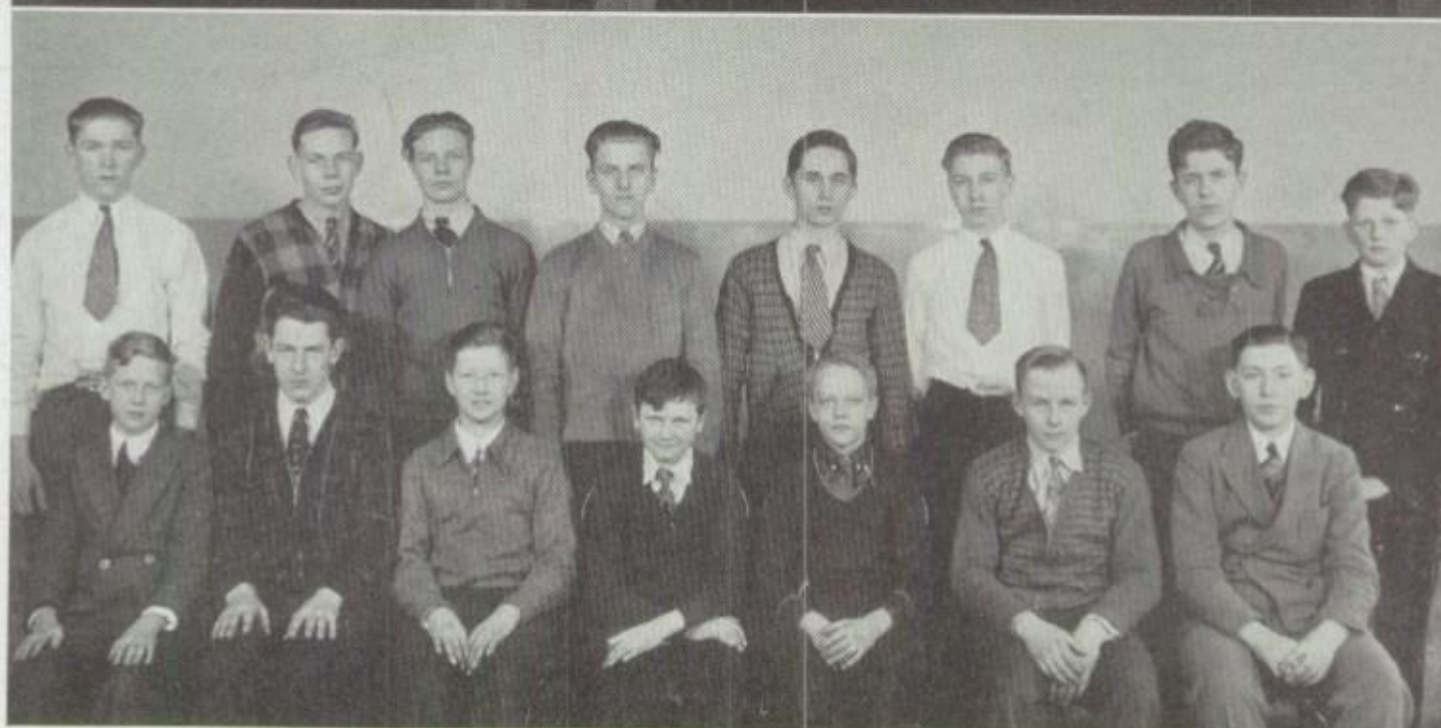

Just Us Girls is a club composed of sophomore, junior, and senior girls. Its purpose is to promote school spirit as well as to sponsor entertainment for the school. It was organized in 1935 with the assistance of Rose Dekker. The club was discontinued for one-half year but was reorganized in '36 under the sponsorship of Mr. Hofstra.

STAMP CLUB

"Do you have any more copies of that Edison stamp?"

"When will that new issue be out?"

These are among the topics discussed by the members of a newly organized club of enthusiastic stamp collectors. The club's aim is to give its members a good opportunity to trade and distribute stamps and to increase their knowledge about the interesting and educational hobby of stamp collecting. Auctions and stamp exhibitions were events on their program this year.

Standing—J. ALBERTS, J. RUSTHOVEN, R. WEIDENAAR, H. LINDEMULDER, C. VANDER LAAN, L. RIDDERING, S. ROELFSEMA, R. BAAR, J. BERE.

Seated—J. OSTEMA, J. DE BOER, R. MCFARLAND, P. IWEMA, G. KOSTER, B. GROENEWALD, J. SLATER.

ATLAS SPORTS CLUB

We need a trophy case, and we are going to see to it that we get one, seems to be the main thought in the minds of these ambitious freshmen just now. However, their real aim is to support our school in all lines of sports. With such a purpose in mind they could not have chosen a better sponsor than Mr. Koster, the boys athletic director.

HARMONICA CLUB

No, that isn't a train passing by. It is just one of the effects produced on the harmonica.

A group of musically inclined boys has organized this club with harmony and rythm as two of their main objectives. The club is being sponsored by Mr. Baar.

The boys think that all our school is lacking now is a good harmonica band, and they are doing all in their power to provide us with one.

Standing—C. LUTH, A. KLUNDER, H. VANDER LEE, C. DRYFOOT, R. DYKHUIS, H. EIZINGA, G. VANDER WERKEN, J. EVERS, A. VANDER WALL.
Seated—H. VAN STEDUM, T. YOUNGSMAN, P. AARDEMA, MR. MOUW, W. BEIZE, R. BANDRINGA, G. EUWEMA.

Standing—P. MATTSON, A. VOS, N. RUDDINGA, L. THORMALEN, J. TUENE, L. BASSONEILLI.

MECHANICS CLUB

The Mechanics Club is one of the younger clubs of the school. Its purpose is to promote interest in mechanics. They have made an excellent beginning under their sponsor, Mr. Mouw. All of the members hope to increase their knowledge of mechanics by sharing with each other what they already know and by making special studies in this practical field.

Some educational trips were made.

VIRGINES

This group of sophomore girls has lately been organized with Mr. Hofstra as their sponsor. The aim of the club is to promote good sportsmanship among the students, and no one will say that these lively girls are not intensely interested in sports.

As yet these girls have done no one thing of outstanding importance, but they have made all onlookers to their "foolies" envious of their youthful vivaciousness.

Best of luck

CURRENT EVENTS CLUB

The freshmen girls and boys just will not be outdone in oratory by the upper-classmen. They have made an early beginning by organizing this club. Their aim is to promote better speech by giving various discussions on current events. They are making a very good beginning under the leadership of Mr. Evenhouse. When they become seniors they should make a red letter year in the field of public speaking.

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

- 8—A perfectly lovely day marred only by the fact that it was the first day of school. Quite a few turned out for the event—332, in all, in fact. Our freshie rank has increased to the grand total of seventy-five. And are they dumb!
- 17—Seniors went into a grand huddle and made Edwin Hoogstra their president. He's been pretty good at it if we do say so, showing we can pick 'em.
- 24—Another chance for the seniors to pick their man—this time for the MIRROR. After a grand confab, Ernest Rosain was made Editor-in-chief; and Bernard Huiner, his business manager.
- 29—Rest of Chicago Christian High School MIRROR staff informed of their positions. Now let them work—
- 30—The student body combined and presented Doctor Wezeman and New Mrs. Wezeman with a telephone table and chair as a wedding gift.

OCTOBER

- 1—The board and faculty followed our illustrious example and gave a party for Doctor and Mrs. Wezeman.
- 2—Sorores followed their now annual custom of having a roller skating party tonight for the school.
- 5—An election was held in chapel for the officers of the Athletic Association. When the ballots were all counted, Henry Stob was elected president.
- 8—The sophomore girls partyed and initiated the freshies.
- 9—The seniors presented us with their first MIRROR. It was a spectacular masterpiece and contained exactly ten pages. We're real competitors with the big papers now—even have got ourselves a serial.
- Euphemia gave her initiation party for her new members. It was just like a children's party.
- 10—The new Euphemies frisked about school like little kiddies. They had dolls, and balls and teddy bears and everything.
- 14—We all remember our Field Days, but this one shall lurk in our memories for many a day for it was sponsored by the Student Council. And oh boy, those delicious hot dogs and stuff afterwards.
- 20—Our intermural sports finally began. Volleyball also gets under way around here.
- 22—Yippee! No school, 'cause of the teacher's conference in Grand Rapids. May there be many more of these days.
- 27—The second MIRROR came out at last. Hercy's still prancing about the pages.
- 28—Today was the beginning of the Curtis Publishing Company campaign to raise money for our school activities. The Athletic Association sponsored this campaign.
- 30—The A Cappella Choir made its debut in chapel today for the first time. I reckon it shows some promise of being something.
- MIRROR held straw vote for presidential candidate for the student body. Of course, Landon won it!

NOVEMBER

- 3—No school! It only comes once in four years. By now I hope you've guessed the cause was the national presidential election.
- 6—Here ended the Curtis Publishing Company campaign to raise money for our school activities. The money was divided between the Music Department, the Library, and the Athletic Association.
- We got a nice crisp check for $96!
- Acacia got their new brown sweaters. They should come in handy for those cold days in chapel.
- 10—Our own MIRROR came out once more.
- 11—No school! This time for Armistice Day.
- 12—Films were given chapel of Admiral Byrd's expedition to the South Pole.
- 18—School Open House for the parents only. It was sponsored by the Student Council, who said that quite a good crowd of parents attended. Maybe it was just as well we didn't go anyway.
- 20—Sorores held a Father and Daughter Banquet for their papas. The poor dears appreciated the luscious eats they got.
- 24—In honor of our coming holiday, the MIRROR staff came out with a deluxe Thanksgiving issue of the MIRROR.
- 25—A pep meeting held in chapel for our forthcoming Homecoming game.

Violet and Maize

- 26-30—Thanksgiving vacation.
- 27—The Homecoming game. The girls won but our boys lost to the alumni.
- 30—The seniors, after a long and decisive parley, decided on the kind of ring they wanted. Today they ordered them.

DECEMBER

- 2-3—The Choir play "Big Hearted Herbert" was given in the Evangelical Church of Peace. A record crowd attended the performances, numbering about twelve hundred people.
- 9—MIRROR comes out promptly per usual with its choicy morsels of such and such.
- 11—The seniors conferred for their last important meeting and elected their Violet and Maize staff. The results made Virginia Dekker the editor-in-chief, and Bernard Huiner, buisness manager once more.
- 17—In spite of the tests which were drifting about, Acacia bravely gave her Leap Year Party. Did you count the yawns that shone thru the next day?
- 18—Sorores had their bow day. Some of the combinations that were purchased almost beat a rainbow.
- 21—Ugh! Report cards came today. I guess the teachers forgot about the Christmas spirit when they gave out the grades.
 - Pictures were given in chapel about China. No seventh today so we could all see them.
- 22—Both Euphemia and Choir went caroling during the day. We certainly hope that the poor people who heard the two groups appreciated the high class music to which they were being treated.

JANUARY

- 1—Choir presented its Christmas Concert in Roseland. Its warblings were truly ear filling.
- 4—Back to the toil and grindstone of our school. How we do miss Maurie's sunny smile. Let's hope he gets better soon.
- 6—On first glance we were quite positive that a store (jewelry) had been robbed in the vicinity. However, we quickly learned that it was only the graduates that were sporting their new rings, which were only a day old.
- 8—A longer chapel period today because of the death of Eleanore Reinders.
- 11—No seventh period today for the students to attend the funeral of Eleanor.
 - The juniors bunched together for the first time to elect their MIRROR staff. As a result Cornelius Vander Laan was the editor-in-chief, and George Zwaart the business manager.
- 12—The rest of the junior staff was selected and they held a joint meeting with the senior staff to try to "learn the ropes" from them. Henceforth until the end of their high school lifes the senior will no longer take up their pens for the sake of the MIRROR and will rather devote all their time and efforts to our brilliant annual.
- 13—Mr. Mouw took his physics class to the Jackson Park Museum to aid their study. Then tonight Acacia gave her first skating party of the year to a record crowd.
- 19—The seniors gave us their last efforts in the MIRROR; from now on, old dears, you may lay your blame on the shoulders of those juniors.
- 22—Euphemia finally got her junior-senior banquet off her chest; a very good crowd attended the delicious "eats" and side-splitting amusement that was offered. Pictures were even taken by Groot and Company.
- 27—Chapel was held after school as this was Miss Cooper's last day with us. She was quite quivery, but I suppose that is to be expected. She received some lovely gifts.
- 29—No school for us to recuperate from the strain of the tests.

FEBRUARY

- 1—First day of the new semester. Once again we were greeted by quite a crop of freshies as we entered these portals.
- 5—Today the juniors came out with their first MIRROR, which, we admit, could have been worse.
- 9—The poor Cicero bus was quite crowded tonight as 'twas on the night Acacia had her progressive party in that little suburb.
- 12—Lincoln's birthday today. No school for the rest of C. C. H. S. but today the seniors had to go downtown to watch the little birdie. Some fun.

- 18—First all-club period. Such a sprinkling of new clubs that have sprung up for this period.
- 22—Now today was Washington's birthday as one glance at the date will tell you. A day of rest for the school as a whole, but the rest of the grads had to go down to do or die for the sake of their vanity (more pictures).
- 24—Pictures were first taken at school of clubs and such.
—MIRROR came out again. Today they inaugurated their new mimeoscope so the pictures were too good to be true. Oh well, the Jrs. are coming along all right.
- 25—Election was held for new Student Council members.

MARCH

- 1—Pictures were taken again. The faculty just doesn't appreciate our little activities' being shown.
- 3—Today the whole annual staff said their little pieces in chapel for their masterpiece. 'Twas a lovely sight to see all these Srs. on the platform for us. This day also started their two weeks subscription drive.
- 4—All club period again. It's all right and all that but Mother doesn't take kindly to the idea of having her little darling coming home at this late hour.
- 8—Beginning of Picture Week for the rest and all of the school. All these candid cameramen underfoot get under our skin. They get some of the worst poses.
—Reverend Lubbin spoke and showed pictures in chapel.
- 9—The MIRROR'S out again, my dears, the MIRROR'S out!
- 11—Report cards came out. We wonder how long the faculty is going to force us to submit to the ruling of two unexcused absences getting a F. We've never seen so many F's!
- 16—Tryouts for the senior play "The Family Upstairs"; from all we've seen and heard of it, it's going to be very good, funny etc.—in fact, all you want in a play.
- 19—Special chapel held in the afternoon by Doctor Wezeman because of the school explosion in Texas.
- 22—'Twas on this fateful day that the seniors were fitted for their robes. It was surprising how many big heads there were. You would never have guessed it.
- 24—This evening Acacia and Sorores united to give a splash party for their alumnae at the Rose-land Y. The night was dark and stormy, but these brave girls for the most part ventured out to splash.
- 25—Euphemia gave a banquet for her alumnae tonight. The decorations and program were supposed to follow the idea of a Southern spring.
- 26—No school today because it was Good Friday.
Week of the 29th—This was Courtesy Week and was sponsored by our most active Student Council.
- 29—Cast for the senior play and also the production staff were informed of their positions already yet so soon.
—The Virgines had their popcorn sale.
- 30—Sorores had their annual Rose Day.
—All annual candid snapshots were called in.

APRIL

- 1—April Fools Day. Weren't you fooled? I wasn't (Heh, heh).
- 5—Student Council had an election for the most courteous boy and girl in the school. There was wide variety of votes, but Marie Wezeman and Arthur Rogers were the chosen ones to fill these positions. Say thank you.
- 6—Another issue of the MIRROR came out today.
- 14—The letters were given to the boys' and girls' basketball teams. Fifteen boys' letters were given out and eight letters to the girls. Makes a nice showing of our school colors.
- 15—Club period again.
- 16—Girl Reserves sold school penants for only a nickel. Now people really know where we come from.
- 19—Swets lugged the seniors downtown to the library there to start that distracting period known as the making of the term paper.
- 20—Once again our MIRROR came out.
—Acacia gave another skating party, this time for only the school.
- 21—The A Capella Choir gave its concert at the Evangelical Church of Peace. It was lovely and Mr. Baar was justly proud. Claire and Johnny Meekema sang the solos.
- 23—We're off—but only to press. So long.

COMING EVENTS

LIFE OF A SENIOR

First period study homework to do,
Trying to find out who is who.
Second period history with H. A. Swets,
Little more brain work with those tests.
Next comes chapel with some songs,
And the light of Scriptures on you dawns.

Then to "205" you hurriedly dash,
For you don't want to be late for Mr. Barr's class.
Then down to Mr. De Vries you once more go,
To get some more algebra, though you hate it so.
Then at 12:02 upward you spring
For then the good old lunch bell rings.

After lunch to Mr. Van Beek you hike
While he's in the boiler room smoking his pipe.
Sixth period Bible never go there
Miss the teachers by a hair. (sometimes)
Seventh period study sit there amused
Till Mr. De Vries yells unexcused.

RAY KLUNDER

Dear Phyllis:
I'll never be able to repay
you for all your assistance & love.
Don't forget to come back next year.
I need a kid like you.

Dear Phil ...
I'm hoping
sweet little girl
nice summer
very vacation
for all.

VISITORS WERE PRESENT

"Daddy, may I have a dime?" asked little Bob Baar.
Mr. Baar obliged, with a smile.

"This time you won't make me give it back after the company's gone, will you, dad?" was Bob's loud remark.

Mr. Evenhouse: "It gives me great pleasure to give you 85 on your examination."
Claus De V.: "Why not make it 100 and give yourself a real thrill?"

THE EYE OF THE FUTURE

I, Hogi Pogi, the Great Seer of all—I see all, hear all, tell all, and know noth—(oop, That's a typographical error) have magnanimously accepted the SOS to trace the efforts of the humble graduates of that great institution, Chicago Christian High School. Therefore if all present will please take off their hats and concentrate on what the future will whisper in my ear, I shall proceed by calling name of a person on this list and then state their future occupation or greatest achievement. Quiet please, while I go into my trance—

I see ROBERT HUIZENGA teaching elephants to eat hay; MABEL JABAAY manufacturing purple gumdrops; BERNARD HUINER, a French hairdresser; CATHERINE ZANDSTRA a baby's dentist; HENRY HOEKSTRA, a sign painter; ALICE VAN BAREN, a demonstrator for sudless soap; JAMES BOEREMA, author of a six-volume dictionary; GERTRUDE BUIKEMA, a button replacer; VERA SCORZA, a brain truster, who invented that useful little article, the soup catcher; HENRY STOB, selling modern drinking fountains for fish; VIRGINIA DEKKER, the one and only correspondent to Pluto; JESSIE SLUIS, a taffy puller.

ERNEST ROSAIN as a Swedish masseuse; VIOLA KIUPER, a bargain hunter; M. LUBBEN the country's speediest speaker; JOHN BILTHUIS, keeper of the oyster beds; BETTY PERSENAIRE, fed Starved Rock; ROSALIE GOSE, a cliff dweller; CHESTER VAN HOFF, superintendent of an old maid's home; TENA VANDER WALL, rakes forests; MARIE WEZEMAN, discoverer of skinless raisins; DOROTHY WESTRA, a children's story teller; CONRAD DOUMA, official hunter of frogs; ADELINE VAN HEYNINGEN, ties knots in shoe string

My, what a list of great and worthy friends, but the crystal is not finished. Come closer, please, and make absolutely no noise.

Now here is CLARENCE DE VRIES playing with toy trains; ALICE BOSMA driving a pony team through the Alps; GRACE JONKMAN, inventress of flavor-lasting chewing gum; RAY KLUNDER, chief attendant at a jelly-fish aquarium; GRACE VAN AMSTEL, president of a humane society; LOUISE STIERS, training dogs for leashes; MARVIN KORTENHOVEN, author of "HOUSEHOLD HINTS"; CLAIRE OTTENHOFF, captures five cannibals single handed; ROBERT RADIUS, champion wrestler with white mice; JACK HOEKSTRA, now where did he go? Oh, I see, he's a henpecked husband escaping the "little wife"; PAULINE ZYLSTRA, took the part of cupid in a play; LAWRENCE GROOT, Santa Claus' little helper.

My friends, I see you will have many great accomplishments to your credit. Let me proceed—

I see RUTH TERBORG floating across the Atlantic on a bar of soap; JANET ROSAIN, manager of a pet asylum; ANDREW HOEKSTRA, rat exterminator; HILDA BOSCH swam the Mississippi River under water; EDWIN HOOGSTRA, another Fuller Brush man; IRENE SCHURINGA, a distinguished society matron; MAE SLAGER, trying to cultivate pansies that look like orchids; CALVIN OOMS, watering thirsty elephants; JOHANNA DE VRIES, invented noiseless streetcars; ADAM SLUIS, a poet laureate; NELLIE VANDERMOLLEN, a false teeth fitter; FRED VANDER SCHAAF, posing for hair tonic ads; THERESA OVERZET, a vacuum cleaner demonstrator; WILLARD LOBBES, a Greek Cross word puzzle expert; JAMES WEST, a cheer leader; PETER COOPER, a professional yodeler; and lastly, CHESTER TOREN, head of a staff of lolly-pop salesmen. And now.

"The moving Finger writes; and having writ
Moves on; nor all your Piety nor Wit
Shall lure it back or cancel half a line,
Nor all your tears wash out a work of it."

That will be all for the present. Kindly pay as you leave, my good friends.

OUR FACULTY

First in line, is dear old Doc
But when you've done wrong, he's hard as rock
He has gained the title of husband now
And we've no doubt he makes a wow.

Mr. Swets is our history shark
He enjoys a day in the baseball park,
Give him all credit and due respect
Someday he'll be our president elect.

Miss Cooper has left for a home in the West
As teacher of languages she was the best
Her eyes discovered all that was done amiss
And if we got caught it wasn't all bliss.

Our science teacher is Mr. Mouw
When it comes to explaining, he knows just how
He can tell you the why and wherefore of ice
In case you're in doubt just ask his advice

Miss Tenninga came to us last fall
She has gained the love and respect of all
Her work is in the commercial line
And all her new plans have worked out fine

Mr. Lanning is another hard worker
And never has yet been found a shirker
His hair is black, his eyes are brown
And his clothes! Say! he really goes to town

Mr. De Vries is our mathematician
He was our last year's acquisition
His eyes are brown—his hair has luster
And under his nose is a cookie duster

Who smokes his pipe and plays ping pong?
Who knows Shakespeare? now you can't go wrong
Have you guessed or are you still in doubt
It's Mr. Van Beek I'm talking about.

Mr. Hofstra is a teacher easy to please
His favorite subjects are frogs and fleas
You say "How in the world can that be?"
Why he's the biology teacher now do you see?

Mr. Vander Velde conducts the bookkeeping class
The subject that is hardest of all to pass
He helps the basketball teams to win
And even if worried he wears a grin.

A musical man is Mr. Baar
For another man like him you'll have to go far
He conducts the choir, orchestra, and band
He makes quite a picture with baton in hand

- 1—We know a secret.
- 2—That man again.
- 3—A smile in a school load.
- 4—The daily dozen.
- 5—You piggy.
- 6—Wistful.
- 7—Say when.
- 8—Almost like sisters.
- 9—Click, click, just him thinkin'.
- 10—Now Ernie, what next?
- 11—Lookout Tower.
- 12—Love in bloom.
- 13—Sweet little smile.
- 14—Trick rider.
- 15—That fishes that got away.
- 16—Triplets twice.

Henry Stob: "Absolutely. All you've got to do, is to glue it to the floor."

Mr. Mouw: (after a lesson on snow) "As we walk out on a cold winter day and look around, what do we see on every hand?"

Freshie: "Gloves!"

Officer: "Hey! Pull over to the curb, lady. Do you know you were doing seventy-five?"

Virg. D.: "Isn't it marvelous!—And I just learned to drive yesterday."

Tommie Z.: "I just can't get into my locker."

Adam Sluis: "It wasn't made for you to get into."

Mr. Lanning: "Do you understand this problem?"

Class: "No."

Mr. Lanning: "Well, watch the board, and I'll go through it again."

Father (as Jim. B. creeps into bed): "Jim, what time is it?"

Jim: "One o'clock!" (Clock strikes four).

Father: "My, how the clock stutters."

"Speak to me," Elsa said, and looked into his dark brown eyes.

"Speak to me," she repeated, and stroked his soft curly hair.

This he could not resist, so he said, "Bow-wow!"

Lenny W.: "I always do my hardest work before breakfast."

June V. L.: "What's that?"

Lenny W.: "Getting up."

Miss Schuringa was having her trials and finally wrote the mother of A. Hadko: "Your son is the brightest boy in my class, but he is also the most mischievous. What shall I do?" The reply came: "Do as you please, I am having my own troubles with his father."

Mother: "Now remember Johnny, there's a ghost in that dark closet where I keep that cake."

Johnny B.: "Funny, you never blame the ghost when there's any cake missing, it's always me."

(Concluded from Page 70)

Miss Schuringa is the small miss you see
 Buzzing around like a bumblebee
 She likes to teach English and Civics best of all
 So long we'll be seeing you again in the fall.

Miss Lightenburg, is our master of art
 In the field of dramatics she takes her part
 She's friendly to everyone around
 A sweeter personality cannot be found.

Mr. H. Wezeman is our bachelor man
 Teach languages? Say, he really can
 He's so shy and modest and kind,
 A man like him is hard to find.

Mr. Evenhouse is our Bible teacher
 Someday he aims to become a preacher
 He knows his subject from beginning to end
 And at all times he's everyone's friend.

ANONYMOUS

Roger V. D.: I am indebted to you, sir, for all I know.

Mr. Van Beek: Nonsense, my boy, you don't owe me a thing.

Miss Schuringa: How many days are contained in each month.

Henry Voss: Thirty days hath September
 All the rest I can't remember
 The calendar hangs on the wall
 Why bother me with this at all?

Mr. Swets: Now Tunie, Can You give me Napoleon's nationality?

Tunis D. Y.: Course, I can.

Mr. Swets: Yes, that's correct—Corsican.

Mr. Hendrikse: The man who marries my daughter will get a prize.

Jim: May I see it please.

Mr. Swets: For what was Abraham Lincoln noted?

Annabell C: For his memory.

Mr. Swets: What makes you think he had such a good memory?

Annabell C: Because I saw a monument erected to it.

Irene: I tell you I wear no. 2.

Clerk: But these old shoes of yours are No. 4's.

Irene: Yes, I know but they have stretched horribly.

Bob H: Have you ever loved before

Pauline: No, dear. I have often admired men for their strength, courage, good looks, or intelligence, but with you, Bob, it is all love-nothing else.

Dumb Dora: I'm not going to school any more.

Busy Lizzie: Why not?

Dumb Dora: I can't learn anything. The teachers keep changing the lessons every day.

Violet and Maize

Richard K.: "Just one more question, Mr. Mouw, what if the parachute doesn't open after you jump?"

Mr. Mouw: "If it doesn't open? Well-er-a-, that's what is known as "jumping to a conclusion."

Miss Schuringa: "Surely you know what the word "mirror" means, Peter. After you've washed what do you look at to see if your face is clean?"

Peter Feyen: "The towel, miss."

Ernie R.: "I can see that I'm only a little pebble in your life."

Vera S.: "That's all, but I wish you were a little boulder."

Edee D. V.: "But, mother, why do you object to my being engaged? Is it because of my youth?"

Mrs. De Vries: "Yes, he's hopeless."

Mr. De Vries: "Does your baby go to sleep on your lap?"

Mr. Hofstra: "Yes, about my 99th lap around the sitting room."

Lucy T.: "Say have you noticed the smell in the library lately?"

Sadie S.: "Oh, that's nothing—just the dead silence they keep there."

Prof. Swets: "Now, Otis, I want you to explain this examination paper. Why do you have all your answers in quotation marks?"

Otis B.: "Just a bit of courtesy to the girl seated on my left, Prof."

Mr. Ottenhoff: "Did you know I am sending my daughter abroad to study singing?"

Neighbor: "No, I didn't. But that is very thoughtful of you."

Jacob H.: "Er-er-excuse me, Mr. Ottenhoff. I-I've courted your daughter for four years and I want to marry her."

Mr. Ottenhoff: "You surprise me. I thought you were going to ask for a bonus or a pension."

Elmer S.: "Now, Bernie, why did you quit working for Mr. Jones?"

Bernie A.: "Because he did something I didn't like."

Elmer S.: "What in the world did he do now?"

Bernie A.: "He fired me."

Dr. Wezeman: "I made my wife wait nine years before I married her."

Mr. Evenhouse: "Yes?"

Dr. Wezeman: "Now she's paying me back on the installment plan. She keeps me waiting a half hour every time we go out."

Claire O.: "I spent the last hour in the staff room with the person I love best in the whole world."

Marie W.: "Don't you ever tire of being alone?"

C. Roelfsema: "What is college bred, Pop?"

Mr. Roelfsema: "They make college bred, my boy, from the flour of youth and the dough of old age."

There is no substitute for quality

Dear Phyllis:

Well, Koo Koo College seems to be the talk of the town with us sophs.
But we sure had fun. Are you still dizzy of going around in alleys? I am.
I'm still wondering how much of a fool I made of Lamb. Well, I got home in one piece that night and you say I am lucky. I sometimes think we almost could have gone through your car because we went so fast.
But I still say that Lamb didn't have his head out of the window.
You must have looked crooked
because I was sitting in the front with him and I ought to know then. But Roger went around the corner pretty fast sometimes
and. whoops
Those two in the back seat weren't sitting so far apart
either.

~~you better~~
Now better watch
yourself, Phyllis.
Have a swell vacation
and keep in contact with RVD.
Love and
Best wishes
Celia

had in you.

Dear Phyl:
We sure had good
time & hope I see you again. Edith & I mention

at
Roy. Van Allen

Dear Phyllis:

I thought I'd write on the page next to his so when you looked at mine you would also see his or just the other way around. I see you learnt a lot that night, remember. I have to laugh at you because first it I do, then, I don't,
I do, etc. Just had my hair cut and waiting for my mother to come home from getting some more curls added.
Sorry, if you can't go with on my vacation. I hardly know what to write.
Suppose to parade July 13^{but} won't be home.
I've got the cutest boyfriend named Bob W. Stitt from the place where I take care of the kids. We just board but every morning we have our conversation.
I suppose you & Roger do too. Probably you & Jerry. Who knows. This is Saturday night July 10. I'm in the singing mood.
Now 11: P.M. I believe P.M. is for night.
Somebody's tooting the horn right in front of our house & calling to but I don't care because I'm in my pajamas.
This is really a letter. ~~It went to cedar~~ Lake Thursday & got brown. Hope you continue at C.R. N.S. because Roy goes there. He will probably go to college next so he can be near you. Please don't scratch any out as it is all in pen. I will write you a letter now. Don't lose it
I honestly got it from R.V.D.
P.S. Don't mind the scribbling. I'm writing on my lap. Come over once every week. (OVER
N.C.)

5/31

Dear Phyllis,
How in the whole
wide world do you expect
me to write such a lot to you,
when I just finished writing so much to Mary. Well, I suppose I am glad you're not leaving us yet, and I hope we have a lot of fun next semester. I don't know what to write. Loads of luck and success in your future years. Stay with them to the end.
Love
Betty

Dear Phil!

Worship.

Dear Phyllis
What shall I write.
Everybody writes about Rogers but, after all, it's the time. Best wishes for the future. I know you always do something to please you. I hope you mother & my mother have coffee now a lot so that we can go to get together you? It's very uncomfortable writing, sitting on on an arm. Sit. books & on the sidewalk. Remember that. Lots of love & a happy vacation. Remember the small time we had at the girl with loads of love
P.S. Come over to my house once every week.
